Housing Services

Summit Community Services Inc is a non-profit organisation, which offers secure, low cost accommodation to eligible low to moderate income earners within the Narrabri Shire.

We are funded by the Department of Community and Justice/Commissioning –Housing through the Commonwealth State Housing agreement (CSHA) and the National Disability Insurance Scheme.

Our properties are either owned by us or head-leased from private landlords and then sub-let to approved tenants at a subsidised rent.

We currently manage sixty four properties in Narrabri. We also manage on behalf of Homes North approx. 160 social housing transfer properties in Narrabri and Wee Waa.

We offer tenancy management, support, budgeting and referral to other services.

We assist people who have complex housing needs, including people with disabilities, impacting health concerns, long term homelessness, people affected by family violence and youth.
